

Guidelines for Preparation and Submission of Camera Ready Abstracts

10th Annual Research Symposium 11th December 2026 Technologies for a Sustainable and Inclusive Future

The Faculty of Technology, University of Colombo, invites researchers, academics, undergraduate and postgraduate students, and industry professionals to submit abstracts for the Annual Research Symposium 2026 (ARS 2026). Selected abstracts will be considered for oral presentations at the technical sessions of ARS 2026, which will be held on 11th December 2026.

Deadline for the submission of Camera Ready Abstracts: 2nd August 2026

Please follow the instructions carefully. Abstracts that do not adhere to the provided guidelines, do not address comments given by the reviewers and editorial committee or are submitted after the deadline will not be considered for publishing. The Editorial Committee reserves the right to make minor changes to the text to enhance clarity and quality of the abstract.

Soft copies of the camera ready abstract should be submitted to the following link in the CMT platform (Link: <https://cmt3.research.microsoft.com/ARSFOT2026>) by 2nd August 2026.

The author details appear in the author declaration form (signed and returned by the corresponding author via CMT along with each abstract submitted with the signatures of all authors) must be compatible with the author details of each abstract.

If the presenting author indicated in the Author Declaration Form is unable to present the paper, it is the responsibility of the corresponding author to either withdraw the paper in advance or arrange for a co-author to present it.

Reputation damages to authors due to publishing an AI assisted content should endure by the authors.

Guidelines for preparation of Camera Ready Abstracts

- i. The abstract must report original research not previously published elsewhere.
- ii. An author may submit a maximum of one abstract as a single author and up to three abstracts as a co-author. No author shall submit more than four abstracts in total.
- iii. At least one of the authors should be affiliated to the Faculty of Technology, University of Colombo.
- iv. The author(s)' names and addresses
 - a. Capital letters should be used only for the initials and the first letters of the surnames of authors.
 - b. The address of the Institution where the work was carried out should be included under the author's name.
 - c. If the collaborators are from different institutions, the addresses of the institutions should be included in brief. In this case, the addresses of the co-authors should be indicated by a number in superscript after the authors' names and before the respective addresses as shown below.

Example (Multiple authors):

P. Menikpurage¹, D. T. U. Abeytunga¹, R. L. C. Wijesundara²

¹Department of Chemistry, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka.

²Department of Plant Sciences, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka.
- v. The title should be brief and reflect the study reported. Capital letters should be used only for the first letter in the first word of the title and proper nouns.
- vi. The text of the abstract should not exceed 300 words excluding title, author affiliations, acknowledgements, and keywords.
- vii. Acknowledgements should be restricted to the names of funding agencies providing sponsorship.
- viii. Standard abbreviations of SI units should be used.
- ix. A maximum of five keywords should be provided.
- x. The abstract should be coherent and free of language errors.
- xi. Before you submit your abstract, ensure that the entire contents of the final abstract will fit into a single A4 page with 1-inch margins all round, font Times New Roman, size 11, and 1.5 spacing.
- xii. Submit the camera ready abstract electronically (via the CMT). (Link: <https://cmt3.research.microsoft.com/ARSFOT2026>)
- xiii. Camera Ready Abstract submission closing: 2nd August 2026

Academic Integrity, Similarity Assessment, and Responsible Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI)

- * All submitted camera ready abstracts must adhere to the highest standards of academic integrity. Plagiarism, including self-plagiarism, is strictly prohibited. Authors are expected to submit original work and ensure that all sources are appropriately acknowledged.
- * All submitted documents will be screened using Turnitin Similarity Detection and AI Detection tools before publication decisions.
- * The use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools in the preparation of manuscripts is permitted only in accordance with the University of Colombo's "Policy on the Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence in Academic and Administrative Activities" (Annex I). Authors remain fully responsible for the accuracy, originality, integrity, and ethical compliance of all submitted content, irrespective of whether AI tools have been utilised.
- * The acceptable similarity threshold for abstracts is 5%.
- * Similarity reports will be evaluated after excluding: Reference lists; In-text citations (citation elements only, not the associated text); and Matched text segments consisting of eight (8) words or fewer.
- * All identified similarities must be appropriately attributed and cited. Whether similarities arise from direct quotations, paraphrased content, adopted ideas, or previously published scholarly work, proper citation and acknowledgement are mandatory. Commonly used technical terms, standard methodological descriptions, and widely accepted academic expressions may not require citation where appropriate.
- * Submissions exceeding the prescribed similarity thresholds, containing uncited material, or violating the University's academic integrity requirements may be rejected without further notification.
